How risky is it?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. SEI Investments Canada Company has rated this fund's risk as medium to high.

For a description of the specific risks of this fund, see the fund's simplified prospectus.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

Who is this fund for?

Investors who:

- want capital growth over the long term;
- want a Canadian equity investment to complement a large capitalization Canadian equity investment;
- are planning to hold their investment for the long term; and/or
- own or plan to own other types of investments to diversify their holdings

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class R units of the fund. The fund has other classes of units. The fees and expenses are different for each class. Ask about other classes that may be suitable for you.

1. Sales charges

No sales charges are payable for purchases made directly through the manager or authorized brokers and dealers.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- Withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- Cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
