CRM Integration Diagram.

List all of your important technology applications that use or add to your client data and draw the connections. You can use single → or double headed ←→ arrows to indicate one or two way integration. There is also an option to connect two applications by way of a third party for aggregation or additional data.

Application	By way of…	CRM